PROMO 2018

Victor Mikhailov, actor, model, musician

Vitya is a person who has the blend of qualities that are rare for people of his profession. Both, his talent and appearance co-exist with the intelligence in absolute harmony. Alyona Gorbunova put the make-up.

The whole series: Part I \ Part II

Anhen Bogomazova, model

I believe the most powerful images done when all participants trust each other. One of the signs that a model gives a credence to me is they are not afraid of being naked in the same room with the team.

I was working with Anhen first time. After a moment of awkwardness - when several sets of shots left behind - she asked 'Will it Okay if I get changed here?'

Olga Popova assisted, Sasha Zinov'eva put the make-up and styled the hair.

Kate Tosh Jewelry, WoodERN collection

Ekaterina Tolstosheeva, a jewelry designer and a BHSAD student, had inducted the brand. In partnership with Kate, I made up the concept of the shoot. The concept reflected the collection's idea that was inspired by the luminaire of Daniel Libeskind: destructive shapes of constructive natural content.

The jewelry - necklace, ring and mono earring - are made from rosewood, silver 975 sterling and gold gilt.

The production team included Evgenia Bazarova (model), Tima Leo (HMUA) and Dmitry Zhdanov (retoucher).

for Make-up artists' portfolio

The images represent the interim assessment of make-up artists in Moscow Film School (the course leader is Masha Morzunova) that took place in January 2018.

Liza Pavlova, model

At the beginning, I had an idea of making a simple modeling test of Liza on demand of the Moscow-based agency Modus Vivendis. During the pre-production, I asked my good mate and fashion designer Evgenia Barkova to add a touch with a garment she invented. Evgenia had this jacket free. So, the Chick ('Cyplyonok' in Russian) was born. Olga Popova assisted during the shoot.

The whole series

Gloria Prudnikova,
fashion designer, model

A modeling test for Modus Vivendis adventitiously turned into a performance of the co-founder of the Ceremony clothes brand. She had stepped into the studio, switched on fancy punk music and stated 'I do not use cosmetics'. Then, a show of diversity and eagerness to experimenting began. Olga Popova assisted during the shoot.

The whole series

Natalia Nazarova, model

At the three shoots I have collaborated with Natalia, I intended to depict sexuality using the straight approach: to reveal feminine features. It seems to be the easiest way I could choose in the case.

At the second shoot, it turned into a kind of that seemed to me as 'anti-sexuality'. She covered her body with formless clothes, tried to make the woman disappeared but the person who destructs herself. I decided not to change the way Natalia had chosen.

The whole series. The 1st \ 3rd stories.

Dmitry Zhdanov retouched all stories.
Alyona Gorbunova put the make-up.

Amalia Normann, model

Amalia is a talkative person. Although the feature of her character does not constrain her ability to work hard when it is time to. Rare quality.

During the session, we were repeating the same static poses or movements again and again with such small improvements and great meticulousness that I was starting to worry 'One more attempt - she will quit'. She did not.

Olga Popova assisted, Alyona Gorbunova put the make-up, Dmitry Zhdanov helped to prepare the final images.

Guzel Malikova on himself.

The whole series

Sergey Vasilega, model

Sergey is that kind of person who does not afraid of being different in front of a camera. He likes (and have played in the past) heavy metal music and loves his muscular well-treated body. He is willing to pose a hunk as well as a vulnerable person.

Kseniya Anikeeva put the make-up, Dmitry Zhdanov retouched the photographs.

The whole series. The "hunk's" story

Artem Novikov,
model, choreographer, artist

As I am widely open to a model's choice of props, Artem took the clothes I would implicitly like to see on a male but it had never happened before. It looked organic as quick as Artem had defined his movements and poses. It was in his nature to blur the subtle line between that used to be considered as feminine or masculine.

Kseniya Anikeeva put the make-up and styled the hair, Dmitry Zhdanov retouched the photographs.

The whole series

Lera Korablina, model

We started from a strict 'stern' look, but it did not work. When Lera has put a summery dress and let her hair-strings fly apart and touch the lips and the skin, her naivete blossomed up. Olga Popova assisted.
